

When We Network ...

Nancy Quinn
March 2010

Are You ... A Wife, A Girlfriend, A Mom, A WOMAN?!?!

Do you already work? Do you work 1, 2 or 3 jobs? Do you love what you do? Is what you do help others succeed? Come share your storyCome listen to others share their stories.....Are you a stay at home mom? Are you looking for something for you? Come see what others are doingAre you out of work and wondering what other women are doing?

Imagine networking with a group of women who want to share their experiences with the intention of helping someone be happy.....that's what we are about to do. Don't come to sell your products.... Come talk about them. Don't sell your services.....share your experiences. What is it that you do that keeps you doing it? What makes you get out of bed in the morning or afternoon, or evening? Share an opportunity!!

When we “network” our job is to think of what we can do for the person we are listening to.....when you read this think of not just yourself, but perhaps someone you know ...

We have all heard the sayings ‘from trash to treasure’ or ‘beauty is in the eye of the beholder’it all means the same....What may be your passion may not be mine and mine may not be yours BUT what if your passion was my friend’s passion wouldn’t you be thrilled, I know I would be.

Hope to see you and your girlfriends, your co-workers, your sisters, your moms, your aunts; you get the picture. First Monday of every month.... TWICE
