

Vacation Blog: Mexico!!!

Tricia Gonzalez - April 2011

I just returned from the Paradise of Riviera Maya in Mexico. As a guest of Karisma Resorts, we toured the El Dorado and Azul Resorts on a wedding fam trip. We were given the opportunity to view these fabulous resorts as a bride and groom would.

Starting at El Dorado Royal Casitas, where we stayed for four nights (I stayed one more), we were pampered. After our champagne checkin, when I arrived in my Casita, my jacuzzi bath was drawn and covered with rose petals, as well as my king size bed. The Casita also has an indoor and outdoor shower.

El Dorado and Azul Resorts have many venues for wedding and vow renewal ceremonies and celebrations. Each can be tailored and decorated as you wish. From beachfront, to gardens and even roof top ceremonies. There are wedding coordinators at each resort to assist with planning.

El Dorado Royal, El Dorado Casitas, El Dorado Seaside Suites and El Dorado Maroma are all adult only resorts. Very romantic, laid back and gorgeous. Each has their own unique qualities. They all offer super deluxe spas, beautifully decorated rooms (most with Jacuzzis), 24 hour room service, gourmet inclusive food and beverage.

The Azul Beach, Azul Sensatori and Azul Fives Resorts are family resorts that are also beautiful, upscale and unique. Weddings can also be held in these resorts and are your option if you will have children under age 18 attending the wedding. (Maroma does allow age 16 and up).

The Azul Resorts all offer children's camps, babysitting and the same gourmet all inclusive service as the El Dorado Resorts.

There are many different room categories at all of the resorts including swim up pools, private infinity pools, beachfront and garden suites. The swim up rooms connect to the main swimming pool so you can swim from your patio to the swim up bar. Some of the pools are heated.

This was an amazing experience and I highly recommend these resorts for couples and families. Call me for a breakdown on room categories and prices.

Tricia Gonzalez - <http://www.mycustomtravel.com/> 516-620-0855