Principessa, Baldwin

Greetings 516Ads.com readers! Many of you are familiar with my monthly column. However, we at the 516 headquarters are always ready to bring you more.

I have been given the opportunity to review Long Island restaurants and it is my job to report back to you, the readers. Last week I had the privilege to review an Italian restaurant in Baldwin called Principessa. This cute little restaurant has so much to offer its customers. From the moment you walk in the door you get a warm fuzzy feeling of home. As you are taken to your seat you are enchanted by the beautiful décor and relaxing music. The fireplace provides a great escape from the cold weather outside. If you are looking to warm up from the inside out then you must try their specialty cocktail, the Paradiso. From the moment you are seated up until the time you leave you are doted on for every little necessity from your server. Our server, Juan provided optimum service. The Principessa menu offers a range of pastas, chicken dishes, appetizers and salads. We took the staff's advice and ordered some specialty dishes. The Principessa salad was refreshing and came with delicious vinaigrette. For the seafood lovers the Linguini with white clam sauce is the way to go. Juan was right on target when recommending the Pollo Contidino, which is chicken, sausage, peppers, onions and mushroom in a garlic demi glaze that is to die for.

For dessert they have an array of cakes, coffees and teas. They even offer a trio of ice creams and have the most amazing cappuccino. In my opinion there is nothing more you can ask for. Their reasonable prices, great service, and lively atmosphere makes for a terrific dining experience. So the next time you're looking for a great meal on Long Island visit Principessa.
